PROHIBITIONISTS BADLY DEFEATED.

The Amendment Snowed Under By Fully Fifty Thousand.

Galveston, Texas, Aug. 4.—All interest centered in the prohibition amendment and the campaign for and against its ratification was conducted with great vigor. Never in the history of Texas had such a canvass been waged. It was no party issue. The ablest men of both parties were arrayed against each other in the contest, and able men from abroad took part. The papers of the state discussed daily for and against until the people from one end to the other were thoroughly aroused. For months the question was discussed from every rostrum and platform in Texas until the alignment became sharply drawn and the tension exceedingly taut.

Between the pros and the antis each side was confident of victory to day. The result, however, has been a Waterloo to prohibitionists, as the returns thus far received indicate that the amendment has been defeated by a majority approximating 40,000. All the large towns gave majorities against it except Fort Worth which gave a majority of 198 for.

The election, while hotly contested throughout the state, passed off quietly, and the best order prevailed at the polls.

The 8 or 10 year old son of Chas. Wilson (a carpenter employed by P. P. Loeffler) met with a shocking accident last Monday evening about 6 o'clock. Finding a mysterious looking box, and curious to ascertain its contents he at once instituted an investigation by opening out the contrivance with a hatchet. The strange box was a fog torpedo (so the matter is explained to our reporter by Dr. Kimball) and a fog torpedo is an article used in various railroad and marine work for giving signals, etc. The unfortunate boy received no signal from the torpedo in question, however, until he had fully closed his investigation—by which time the torpedo had very nearly closed his career. Striking the implement a forcible blow with his hatchet, it exploded and he received the entire contents in his face, which was horribly powder-burned. With rare good fortune, though, it is thought the boy's eyesight was not injured, and that he will pull through his fiery experience all right.—Rich Hill Review.

Indians Threatening.
Aitkin, Minn., Aug. 4.—One hundred Indians in their war paint camped near here this morning, determined to secure the release of the squaws arrested yesterday for committing depredations. The citizens near the camp were much alarmed and prepared for fight as serious trouble was feared.

Later in the day the squaws were released as the authorities were in awe of the bucks.

Couriers have arrived at Aitkin from Willow river bearing the intelligence that the Indians are killing stock belonging to the settlers. Indian Agent Saeahan of Brainerd will be consulted and decisive measures taken to stop the outrages.

Major D. R. Anthorp, of the Leavenworth Times, has been whipped again. The Kansas people in Washington tell a story that Anthony at one time, becoming violently angry at his wife, attempted to pull her tongue out by the roots. As the means of getting the better of a scolding woman this system has the merit of strength, but the element of grace seems to be somehow lacking.—Philadelphia Record.

A Generous And Extensive Loan.
An earnest Christian lady makes the following offer to our readers:—"I will loan, free of postal and all charges to such of your readers as will promise a careful reading and to pay return postage after reading it, a book which in interesting style shows the Bible to be a self-interpreter, and its teachings grandly harmonious, viewed in the light of sanctified reason and common sense.
"I want to put this book into the hands of all the skeptically inclined, as an aid and guard against the growing scientific skepticism. It is not dry, musty reading, but truly 'meat in due season' to the truth-hungry. The light of this precious little volume has made the Bible a new book, a treasure, a mine of wealth, to many as well as to myself. And I feel that I cannot better use my means than in circulating this work by the thousand." Address Postal Card to
